

Eminem dating Kim Mathers again?

Tuesday, 06 February 2007

Despite divorcing her twice, the second time less than a year ago, Eminem is reportedly dating ex-wife Kim Mathers again.

Eminem and Kim have had a turbulent relationship over the past 15 years - including Eminem recording the song 'Kim' which featured a violent dramatised fight between the two of them, ending in her murder - but also have an 11 year old daughter together, Hailie.

Eminem's friend, rapper Akon told the Mirror: 'Eminem still loves Kim. They have one of those relationships where they are off one minute and back together the next.'

'He can't live with her, and he can't live without her. But they are meant for each other. They are engaged again.'

'Eminem will always love Kim. She is the mother of his child - so that's difficult too. He loves spending time with them.'
